

TU-214F(Gargo)

The economy is a purposeful activity of people in the management of resources, based on a comparison of projected acquisitions and loss of resources with the planned expenditure of resources necessary to achieve their goals. And in the absence of physical indicators of measurement, it is meaningless to assess the state of the system as a whole.

Cargo transportation by air. Pricing is the process whereby a business sets the price at its products. Profit Margin LF=100%, BELF<=97%. Average length of haul (discreteness 500 km) and total km. Aircraft departures on the route - 100 and total 1800 Year (efficiency utilization).

Table with 18 columns (I to C) representing different distance and capacity categories, and 100+ rows detailing various performance metrics, fuel costs, and economic indicators.

